

Lesson 2: The consequences of recycling

LEARNING OUTCOMES

Recycling knowledge and understanding	Citizenship concepts and processes	Personal, Learning and Thinking Skills
Disposal is the least effective way to deal with packaging waste. Materials take many years to break down and cannot be re-used Landfill has many negative consequences, including emissions, effects on the environment and constant demand for fresh natural resources Recycling provides a number of environmental and economic benefits Recycling allows materials to be used again, reducing the need for natural resource extraction and landfill	1.1b What is fair and unfair? 1.2a Rights and obligations 1.2c Balancing rights with obligations 1.3c Consider interconnections between the UK and the rest of the world 2.2a Expressing opinions 2.2b Communicating an argument 2.2c Justifying an argument and persuading others 2.3c Impacts on communities and the wider world	IE: Analyse and evaluate information IE: Plan and carry out research CT: Question their own and others' assumptions CT: Connect ideas in inventive ways RL: communicate their learning in different ways EP: Discuss issues of concern